This Document consists information affecting the Particular Defines of the United States, within the commission of Title is decided by a control of the Cont	This Document contains intermation affecting the National Defines of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections of Title 18, Secti
INFORMATION REPORT CONFIDENTIAL SECURITY INFORMATION COUNTRY Korea REPORT Effect of the Armistice in Yonbaek-gun NO. OF PAGES DATE OF INFO. REQUIREMENT NO. RD REFERENCES THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. INE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENNIATIVE. (FOR REY SEE REVERSE) TON REY SEE REVERSE) 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Heasong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	INFORMATION REPORT CONFIDENTIAL SECURITY INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL SECURITY INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL SECURITY INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL	CENTRA	L IN	ΓELLIG	ENCE AGENC	Y
COUNTRY Korea SUBJECT Effect of the Armistice in DATE DISTR. 13 October 1953 NO. OF PAGES 1 DATE OF INFO. PHACE ACQUIRED THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REY SEE REVERSE) 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yondaek-gum were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveller's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	SUBJECT Effect of the Armistice in Yönback-gun NO. OF PAGES 1 DATE OF INFO. THE SOURCE PYALVATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. TOR RET SET ENTRANCE. 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönback-gun represented by the regulations cased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to degouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Hassong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their degouts. 3. The markets in Yönan, Packohlon, and Chiongdam had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formarly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of snimals and distilling liquors had become commorplace.	INFORA	۱TA۸	ON R	EPORT		tional Defen ing of Title amended. It to or receipt	se of the United a 18, Sections 793 and s transmission or by an unauthori	States, with d 794, of the revelation of zed person	in the mea U.S. Code, of its contents is prohibit	n- as its ied
SUBJECT Effect of the Armistice in Yonbaek-gun DATE DISTR. 13 October 1952 NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD REFERENCES THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REV SEE REVERSE) 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	Effect of the Armistice in Yönbask-gun No. OF PAGES 1 DATE OF INFO. PRACE ACQUIRED THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS SEPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. FOR ART SEE MEYERS. 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönbask-gun Fregulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Hassong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yönma, Paskch'non, and Ch'ingdam had increased their volume of business, merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace. CONFIDENTIAL									50	X1-HUN
The source evaluations in this report are definitive. The appearance of content is tentative. Took key see reverse) Took the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD SOX1-PACCE ACQUIRED INE SOURCE PUBLISHING IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTAINYE. SOX1-HI In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönback-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 person of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yōnan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ōngdan had increased their volume of business, merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace. CONFIDENTIAL	COUNTRY		Korea			REPORT
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönbaek-gun Were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yönan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ŏngdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED THE SOURCE PARAMATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. TO REF REVESS! 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonback-gun Tregulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdam had increased their volume of business. Merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace. CONFIDENTIAL	SUBJECT		Effect		in	DATE D	ISTR.	13	Octob	e r 1953
THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. [FOR KEY SEE REVERSE] 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonback-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	PLACE ACQUIRED THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPLAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPLAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. TO A RY SEE REVESS! 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonbask-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel. anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to digouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Hassong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandies, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commomplace.			Yŏnbael	k-gun		NO. OF	PAGES	1
THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonback-gum were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Packch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	The Source evaluations in this merch are definitive. The Appendix or Content is Tentative. The Tentations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Hassong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. The markets in Yoman, Paskoth'on, and Ch'Mondam had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Thegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace. CONFIDENTIAL	Date of in	NFO.				REQUIRE	MENT NO.	RD		50V1 LII
1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonback-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yönan, Paekch'on, and Ch'öngdam had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Tilegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace.	PLACE ACQ	UIRED				REFEREN	CES)UX 1-FI
1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonback-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yönan, Paekch'on, and Ch'öngdam had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Tilegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace.					_
1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yönan, Paekch'on, and Ch'öngdam had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Tilegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace.	·			•
1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yönbask-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveller's pass issued by the villages. Mulitary conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yönen, Paekch'on, and Ch'öngdam had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace.							Æ.		E	20/4 1 111
1. In late July 1953 various wartime restrictions in Yonbaek-gun were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yonan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ongdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	were being lifted as a result of the armistice. Traffic regulations eased, and blackouts were discontinued. Freedom to travel anywhere required only a traveler's pass issued by the villages. Military conscription was discontinued. 2. Persons who had moved to dugouts in the mountains and open fields were returning to their bombed out homes and repairing them. In Haesong-myon, however, almost 50 percent of the population who had lost their homes during the war could not afford to leave their dugouts. 3. The markets in Yōnan, Paekch'on, and Ch'ōngdan had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace.
had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering	had increased their volume of business. merchandise, formerly hidden, was sold openly on the market. Many new straw and wooden stalls were being built in the market areas. Illegal butchering of animals and distilling liquors had become commonplace. CONFIDENTIAL		In lat		were being	lifted as a re	sult of t	he armisti	ce. Ti	affic,	50 X 1-HI
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. H	In lat regula anywhe conscr Person return noweve the wa	tions e re requi iption s who h ing to r, almo	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out here is to be percent of the contract of the second	lifted as a re is were discont ler's pass issu ts in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugou	sult of to inued. Find by the sains and ring them who had l	he armisticed on to villages. open field In Haes	Milit s were	eary on, during
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armisticedom to villages. open field in Haes. ost their market. Ma	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armisticedom to villages. open field in Haes. ost their market. Ma	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armisticedom to villages. open field in Haes. ost their market. Ma	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armistic reedom to villages. open field a. In Haes ost their	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armistic reedom to villages. open field a. In Haes ost their	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armistic reedom to villages. open field a. In Haes ost their	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armistic reedom to villages. open field a. In Haes ost their	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
	STATE ADMY # NAVY # AID # FRI AFC	2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discont ler's pass issues in the mount nomes and repai the population ave their dugous, and Ch'ongda pusiness. was sold openly mailt in the mar	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armistic reedom to villages. open field a. In Haes ost their	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw
		2. I	In lateregularywhee conscriptions of the manning of	tions e re required in the results of the results o	were being ased, and blackout ired only a travel was discontinued. ad moved to dugout their bombed out he st 50 percent of to not afford to less their volume of their volume of their volume of their volume of their walls were being but their being but the b	lifted as a rets were discontinuer's pass issues in the mount nomes and repair the population ave their dugous and Ch'ongda business. Was sold openly was sold openly nilt in the martors had become	sult of to inued. Freed by the cains and ring them who had litts.	he armistic reedom to villages. open field a. In Haes ost their	Milit s were ong-myc homes c	on, during straw

(Note: Washington Distribution Indicated By "X"; Field Distribution By "#".)